ST. FAUSTINA SAID: "One day, I saw interiorly how much my confessor would have to suffer…..I saw that God himself seemed to be opposing him and I asked the Lord why He was acting in this way toward him, as though He were placing obstacles in the way of his doing what He himself had asked him to do. And the Lord said, I am acting thus with him to give testimony that this work is Mine. Tell him (38) not to fear anything; My gaze is on him day and night. There will be as many crowns to form his crown as there will be souls saved by this work. It is not for the success of a work, but for the suffering that I give reward." (St. Faustina Diary, 90)
