Thank You...

Dear Saint John Bosco parishioners,

It has already been a month since our diocesan diaconate ordination! Yet, everyone continues to overfill me with love and support. I am overjoyed to have experienced your love and presence both at my ordination and at my first Holy Masses as a transitional deacon. I have sensed a powerful embrace from all as deeply encouraging to continue to grow closer to our Lord in order to proclaim His Good News. I thank God for everyone so very much for the efforts placed into such wonderful celebrations for the Church. I am praying daily for everyone back home in gratitude for such solid ground in preparation to serve in Jesus' mission of "returning sight to the blind (...)and good news to the poor" (Matt 11:5).

I thank God for such a vibrant community, and I trust our Lord will continue to enrich your support and prayers to further his mission throughout the world. I hope to see you very soon.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Deacon Emmanuel Carreño García
